Dear Sir:-

I return herewith passport No. 67,100, issued by your Department on March 10th, 1903, for correction.

Since you issued this passport I have decided to take my wife, two small children and a maid servant to Europe with me, and should like to have this addition, or as much of it as is necessary, noted on the passport.

Should there be any additional expense, I will forward whatever sum is necessary to have this passport so corrected.

Very truly yours,
